INDEX TO VOL. LXXXI

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ACC

ACCIDENTS due to fatigue, 413–433
Admiralty, Thinking and Acting at the, 1233–45
Adowa and awakening of Italy, 1015–1027
African natives, German treatment of, 1157–63
Agriculture, The Greater: a Sequel, 171–192
Alcoholic drink traffic, State purchase or control, 332–347
Ali (A. Yusuf), India's Effort: is it sufficiently understood? 348–365
Alsace-Lorraine and Rhine frontier, French claim, 289–299
America and 'Do ut Des,' 540–549
American Dream of Peace, 799–810
American Interests, How the War affects, 811–818
American mediation, President Wilson's dream of, 18–30, 799–810
Antiquities, German Menace to, 1268–76
Archbishops' Committee, Report on relations between Church and State, 1258–67
Armed Neutralities, Sea Power, and President Wilson, 819–845
Atherley-Jones (Judge), An English Home Ruler's View, 932–944
Australia, Compulsory Service in, 468–480
Austria and Prussia, 1098–1109
Austria, Italian views on disappearance of, 1193–1203
Austria, The only Hope for, 217–223
Austria's Doom, 562–569

BALFOUR'S (Mr.) visit to Washington, 991–999
Balkan Diplomacy, New Departure in, 1215–24
Baltic port, Poland's right to a, 300–305

BRI

Bar, The Future of the, 630–639
Barker (J. Ellis), How to find Two Million War Workers, 758–772; Will Germany follow Russia's Example? 1083–1097
Baumann (Arthur A.), The Future of the Bar, 630–639
Bell (Major Kenneth), Joys and Sorrows of a 'Town Major' in France, 193–202
Benson (Sir Frank), 'Bons Camarades' in a War Zone Cantine, 306–318
Bethmann-Hollweg, Sir E. Goschen, and the 'scrap of paper,' 1148–56
Billeting in a French village, 193–202
Bird's-eye View of Educational Reform, 1300–12
Bishops, A Plan proposed to the, 626–649
Bland (J. O. P.), The People versus the Party Machine, 528–539
Blockade, The Naval, 260–280
Blyth (Lord), Suggestions for Doubling the Home Production, 748–757
Bohemia, The Future of, 570–592
'Bons Camarades' in a War Zone Cantine, 306–318
Boulton (Capt. Harold), Our Nursing Service in France, 651–660
Brazil, German schemes for settlement and conquest in, 67–80
Bread Problem, The French Solution of the, 1028–42
Brereton (Cloudesley), A Bird's-Eye View of Educational Reform, 1300–1312
British Empire, Federal system and Imperial Cabinet for the, 481–493
British Imperial Commonwealth, claims of the Daughter Nations, 51–66
British industry, improved methods after the war, 399–421

BRO

Brontë (Charlotte), A Gift from Prof. C. Heger to, 846–861
Brown (Lilian Rowland), The War Poetry of Women, 434–452
Browning (Oscar), The Position of Shakespeare in England, 661–664
Budget, The Fifth War, 1366–81
Bulgaria, Possibility of detaching her from Central Powers, 1215–24
Business of Government, 1125–43, 1246–57
Buxton (Noel), New Departure in Balkan Diplomacy, 1215–24

CABINET, The Passing of the, 281–288
Canteen in a French war zone, 306–318
Capital and Labour, British industrial methods after the war, 399–412
Carlisle (Bishop of), Some Perils of Peace, 253–259
Catherine, Empress of Russia, and armed neutrality, 819–845
Centralised government in India, need of reform, 31–50
Chadwick (Mrs. Ellis), A Gift from Professeur Constantin Heger to Charlotte Brontë, 846–861
Children, The Nation's, and our Duty towards them, 1277–89
Christianity and hope for a future life, 126–140, 609–625
Church and State, 1258–67
Church of England, Waste of Man-Power in the, 862–870
Commonwealth, The Problem of the, 51–66
Communication with the Dead, 109–125, 366–369
Compulsory Service in Australia, 468–480
Conspiracy of Silence, A, 1355–65
Corradini (Enrico), Italy from Adowa to the Great War, 1015–27; Italy, Austria, and Europe, 1193–1203
Courage in Education: an Elementary School Experiment, 871–882
Crammond (Edgar), Ireland's Part in the War, 974–990
Crosse (Gordon), The Real Shakespeare Problem, 883–894; a reply, 1340–1354
Czech Claims and Magyar Intrigues, 579–592
Czecho-Slovaks, The Liberation of the, 570–578

DANGER in India, The: The True Paths of Reform, 31–50
Danzig: Poland's Outlet to the Sea, 300–305
Dardanelles Report, Lessons from the, 906–921
Dead, Communication with the, 109–125, 366–369

FRE

Dearmer (Lieut. Geoffrey), Gomme court, 1411–14
'Democracy' and Monarchy, 1225–32
Democracy in Germany and the example of Russia, 1083–97
Democratic ideals and abuse of the Party Machine, 528–539
Dewar (George A. B.), The Nobler Politics before us, 81–92
Diet and Debt, 319–331
Disabled, Our Debt to the, 679–688
'Do ut Des,' America and, 540–549
Dunraven (Earl of), Diet and Debt, 319–331

EDUCATION and Emulation, Charlotte Brontë's French professor on, 846–861
Education, Elementary, Experiment in, 871–882
Education, Mr. Herbert Fisher as Minister for, 1144–47, 1300–12, 1331
Education, The Future of, 1313–39
Empire, The, 481–527
England and Germany, Sketches in—1914, 1164–92, 1382–1410
English Home Ruler's View, An, 932–944

FACTORY workers, Fatigue among, 413–433
Fashion in War Time, The Tyranny of, 671–678
Federation of the Empire, Claims of the Colonies, 51–66
Fifth Avenue in 1917, 1290–99
Fisher (Mr. Herbert) and his Chances, 1144–47
Fisheries, Nationalisation of, remedy for food shortage, 319–331
FitzGerald (William George), President Wilson's Dream and his Dilemma, 18–30
Food and Labour, 726–772
Food Prices and Food Supply, 726–747
Food production and prices, Government control, 1–17; and consolidated agriculture, 171–192
Forbes (Hon. Mrs. Walter), Sketches in England and Germany—1914, 1064–92, 1382–1410
Forman (Josef), The Liberation of the Czecho-Slovaks, 570–578
Fox (Henry Wilson), The Empire and the New Protection, 510–527
France and the Rhine Frontier, 289–299
France, Our Nursing Service in, 651–660
Francis Joseph (Emperor), his successor, and future of Austria, 217–223
Freedom of the Sea, International force to maintain it, 819–845

FRE

French exposure of German lies, 1204–14
French Paintings, Our New, 665–670
French 'poilus' in Lady Benson's cantine, 306–318
French Solution of the Bread Problem, 1028–42
Frewen (Moreton), America and 'Do ut Des,' 540–549; America's Choice, 991–999
Future Life—and Lives, 370–382

GALLIPOLI expedition and Dardanelles report, 906–921
George (Mr. Lloyd) and Irish self-government, 945–960
German ambitions and schemes for peace, 241–259
German barbarity and America's love of humanity, 811–818
German Empire, Diplomatic relations with, after the War, 224–240
German Menace to Antiquities, 1268–1276
German methods of education, and psychology of men acting in masses, 155–170
German 'national evolution' and Monroe Doctrine, 541–549
German Treachery, New Light on, 1215–24
German War Aims, Morality and, 785–798
Germany and South America: a Brazilian View, 67–80
Germany, Sketches in England and—1914, 1164–92, 1382–1410
Germany's Colonial Empire: Seven Reasons against Restoration, 1157–63
Gommecourt, 1411–14
Government control of food, sugar, and coal, 550–561
Government, The Business of, 1125–43, 1246–57
Government without a Cabinet, 281–288
Greater Agriculture, The, 171–192
Greeks, The Wisest of the, 1047–67
Greenwood (Sir George), The Real Shakespeare Problem, 1340–54
Grey (Lilian), see Brown (Lilian Rowland)
Gribble (Francis), Czech Claims and Magyar Intrigues, 579–592
Grievances, On the Manufacture of, 550–561
Grundy (G. B.), Political Psychology: a Science which has yet to be created, 155–170
Guyot (Yves), Some Essential Conditions of Peace Preliminaries, 224–240

JUS

HALL (Major Sir John), Leagues to enforce Peace: The Failure of the Holy Alliance, 689–699
Handley (Rev. Hubert), A Plan proposed to the Bishops, 626–629
Hapsburgs and Hohenzollerns, past and future relations between, 1098–1109
Harman (Edward George), The Business of Government, 1125–43, 1246–57
Harris (John H.), Germany's Colonial Empire: Seven Reasons against Restoration, 1157–63
Hazell (Walter), Waste of Man-Power in the Church of England, 862–870
Heger (Prof.), A Gift from, to Charlotte Brontë, 846–861
Hill (J. Arthur), Communication with the Dead, 109–118
Holdich (Col. Sir Thomas), How the War affects American Interests, 811–818
Holy Alliance, The Failure of the, 689–699
Home Production, Suggestions for Doubling the, 748–757
Home Rule, land purchase, and Ireland's future, 974–990; Sinn Feiners and the Ulster standpoint, 922–960
Hungarians, Bohemians, and Slovaks, 570–592

'IF a man die, shall he live again?' 126–140, 609–625
Illusion, An, of To-day, 700–708
Imperial Progress, Maritime Communications and, 1043–46
Imperial Trade Policy, 494–509
Imperial War Conference, the Dominions and Migration, 453–467
India, The Danger in: The True Paths of Reform, 31–50
India's Effort: Is it sufficiently understood? 348–365
Industrial Efficiency, Towards, 399–412
Industrial Fatigue, 413–433
Infant-mortality, need for trained midwives, 895–905; duty of the nation, 1277–89
International Law and rights of neutrals during blockade, 260–280
Ireland's Part in the War, 974–990
Irish Maze, The, 922–960
Irish Sybil's Books, The, 945–960
'Is it Peace, Jehu?' 241–259
Italy, Austria, and Europe, 1193–1203
Italy from Adowa to the Great War, 1015–27

JOYS and Sorrows of a 'Town Major' in France, 193–202
Justice and lawyers in the modern State, 203–216, 630–639

KIN

KINGSHIP, Constitutional, versus demagogic dictatorship, 1225–1232
Kingston (Gertrude), On Fifth Avenue in 1917, 1290–99
Kinloch-Cooke (Sir Clement), Migration and the Dominions: Suggestions for the Imperial War Conference, 453–467
Konstam (E. M.), The Debt to the Disabled, 679–688
Kultur and morality, and German ambitious war-aims, 785–798

LABOUR, Competing claims of Army and farmers upon, 726–772
Labour, The Reward of: an Eirenicon, 93–108
Landi (Countess Zanardi), The only Hope for Austria, 217–223
Lane (Sir Hugh), his bequest to the National Gallery, 383–398
Lane-Claypon (Janet E.), Need for a State Midwifery Service, 895–905
Lawyer's Place in the Modern State, The, 203–216
Leagues for Peace, American views on the War, 799–810
Leagues to Enforce Peace, 689–708
Lee (Sir Sidney), Sir George Greenwood and Shakespeare problem, 883–894, 1340–54
Leyland (John), The Great Naval Blockade, 260–280; Lessons from the Dardanelles Report, 906–921, 1233–45
Liberation of the Russian nation, 773–784
Life after Death, 366–382
Lilly (W. S.), The Reward of Labour: an Eirenicon, 93–108; The Wisest of the Greeks, 1047–67
Liquor Traffic in War, The, 332–347
Lodge (Sir Oliver), Communication with the Dead, 366–369
Low (Sidney), United States and the Peace Settlement, 1000–14

MACCOLL (D. S.), The National Gallery Bill, and Sir Hugh Lane's Bequest, 383–398
Macdonell (Sir John), The Lawyer's Place in the Modern State, 203–216
Machray (Robert), The Political Situation in Russia, 593–608
McNeill (Ronald), The Ulster Standpoint, 922–931
Magalhães (Edgardo de), Germany and South America: a Brazilian View, 67–80
Magnus (Sir Philip), Educational Ideals—the Way of Peace, 1331–39
Magyar Intrigues, Czech Claims and, 579–592

NO

Malden (W. J.), The Greater Agriculture: a Sequel, 171–192
Mallet (Charles E.), No Peace without Victory, 241–252
Man-Power in the Church of England, Waste of, 862–870
Maritime Communications and Imperial Progress, 1043–46
Marriott (J. A. R.), The Problem of the Commonwealth, 51–66; The Supreme Issue, 709–725; War Finance: The Fifth War Budget, 1366–81
Mason (Charlotte) and teaching children by literature, 871–882
Mason (Miss M. H.), 'The Tyranny of Fashion' in War Time, 671–678
Maud (Constance Elizabeth), A Torch-bearer, 1110–24
Midwifery, Need of a State Service, 895–905
Might against Right, rule of force or rule of law, 709–725
Migration and the Dominions, 453–467
Monarchy and 'Democracy,' 1225–1232
Monroe Doctrine, its dependence on the British Navy, 545–549
Morality and German War Aims, 785–798

NAMIER (L. B.), Danzig: Poland's Outlet to the Sea, 300–305
National Gallery Bill, The, 383–398
National Mission, The, does it interpret the National Soul? 141–154
National service, work for unoccupied hands, 758–772; and the clergy, re-arrangement of parishes, 862–870
Nationalism in Italy, 1015–27
Nation's Children, The, and our Duty towards them, 1277–89
Naval Blockade, The Great, 260–280
Naval strategy and Admiralty reorganisation, 1233–45
Neutrality a compact with crime, Brazilian view, 67–80
Neutrals and belligerents, their respective rights during blockade, 260–280
New Light on Germany's Treachery, 1204–1214
New Protection, The Empire and the, 510–527
New Transport Company, Goods Clearing House and Board of Trade, 1355–65
New York and the American declaration of war, 1290–99
Newbolt's (Henry) Song of the Great Retreat, 993–994
No Peace without Victory, 241–252

NOB

Nobler Politics before us, The, 81–92
Nursing Service, Our, in France, 651–660

O'BRIEN (William), The Irish Sybil's Books, 945–960
Occult science, and reincarnation, 370–382
Ogden (C. K.), Industrial Fatigue, 413–433
Ordeal by Fire, 1–17
Organisation of the Empire, 481–493

PAGET (Lady), Austria's Doom, 562–569; Austria and Prussia, 1098–1109
Paradise (Rev. Frank Ilsley), Does the National Mission interpret the National Soul? 141–154
Parents' Union School method of education, 871–882
Parliamentary procedure and the Party machine, 1125–43, 1246–57
Parsons (Mrs. Clement), Courage in Education: an Elementary School Experiment, 871–882
Party government, Cabinets, and War Councils, 281–288
Party politics and Imperial unity, 81–92
Passelecq (Fernand), The 'Sincere Chancellor,' 1148–56
Peace intrigues, German terms, 1–17
Peace, Leagues to Enforce, 689–708
Peace Preliminaries, Some Essential Conditions of, 224–240
Peace Settlement, The United States and the, 1000–14
Peace, The American Dream of, 799–810
People, The, versus the Party Machine, 528–539
Petrograd during the revolution, 1068–1082
Phayre (Ignatius), see Fitzgerald (William G.)
Pictures, Sir Hugh Lane's, and National Gallery, 383–398
Piggott (Sir Francis), The Passing of the Cabinet, 281–288; Sea-Power, the Armed Neutralities, and President Wilson, 819–845
Poland's Outlet to the Sea: Danzig, 300–305
Political Psychology: a Science which has yet to be created, 155–170
Pollock (John), The Russian Revolution: a Review by an Onlooker, 1068–82
Prices of food, profiteering, and Government control, 726–747
Problem of the Commonwealth, The, 51–66
Prosperity, its moral dangers, 253–259

SIM

Protection of industry and Empire preference, 510–527
Prussia, Austria and, 1098–1109
Psychical research and the War, 109–118
Public Schools, Education in our, 1313–1330

REID (Sir George), Mr. Herbert Fisher and his Chances, 1144–47
Religion and war, their influence on national life, 141–154
Resurrection, Christian hope for, 126–140
Revictualling Service in France, 1028–1042
Revolution in Russia, The old Government and the new, 773–784; review by an onlooker, 1068–82
Rhine Frontier, France and the, 289–299
Robins (Elizabeth), Women at Home and beyond the Seas, 640–650
Robinson (Cyril E.), Education in our Public Schools, 1313–30
Ropes (Arthur R.), A Conspiracy of Silence, 1355–65
Rowntree (B. Seebohm), Towards Industrial Efficiency, 399–412
Russia, The Political Situation in, 593–608
Russian Revolution, Review by an Onlooker, 1068–82
Russia's Example, will Germany follow it? 1083–97
Russia's Self-Realisation, 773–784

SAMUEL (Herbert), The Organisation of the Empire, 481–493
Scharlieb (Dr. Mary), The Nation's Children and our Duty towards them, 1277–89
Scientific agriculture and doubling food supply, 748–757
Sea Power, the Armed Neutralities and President Wilson, 819–845
Selborne (Earl of), Church and State, 1258–67
Sellers (Edith), On the Manufacturing of Grievances, 550–561; The French Solution of the Bread Problem, 1028–1042
Shadwell (Dr. Arthur), Ordeal by Fire, 1–17; The Liquor Traffic in War, 332–347; Food Prices and Food Supply, 726–747; Towards the End, 961–973
Shakespeare Problem, The Real, 883–894; a reply, 1340–54
Shakespeare, The Position of, in England, 661–664
Sichel (Walter), Monarchy and 'Democracy,' 1225–32
Simpson (Prof. J. Y.), Russia's Self-Realisation, 773–784

SIN

'Sincere Chancellor,' The, 1148–56
Sinnett (A. P.), Future Life—and Lives, 370–382
Socrates, Xenophon, and Plato, 1047–67
Soldiers, What we owe to disabled, 679–688
Some Perils of Peace, 253–259
Spiritualists and alleged communication with the dead, 109–125, 366–382
State Midwifery Service, Need of a, 895–905
Stephen (Sir Herbert), Communication with the Dead, 119–125; a reply to, 366–369; The American Dream of Peace, 799–810
Stone (Brig.-General F. G.), Leagues to Enforce Peace: an Illusion of To-day, 700–708
Supreme Issue, The, 709–725
Sydenham of Combe (Lord), The Danger in India: The True Paths of Reform, 31–50; Maritime Communications and Imperial Progress, 1043–46

THINKING and Acting at the Admiralty, 1233–45
Torch-bearer, A, 1110–24
Towards the End, 961–973
'Town Major' in France, The Joys and Sorrows of a, 171–192
Trade development in British Empire, 494–509, 1043–46
Trades Union confederation and co-partnership between Labour and Capital, 93–108
Transformation of America, 991–1014
Treasury procedure and business of finance, 1125–43

ULSTER Standpoint, The, 922–931
United States interests and European War, 811–818

VANDALISM of Germans, destruction of monuments and works of art, 1268–1276

WADE (Hon. C. G.), Compulsory Service in Australia, 468–480
Waldstein (Sir Charles), Morality and German War Aims, 785–798

WEM

War Finance: The Fifth War Budget, 1366–81
War, India's share in the, 348–365; issues at stake, 709–725; submarine blockade, German failures on land, and nearness of the end, 961–973; Ireland's part in the, 974–990; America's share in the, 991–1014; fashions during the, 671–678; German diplomatic lies before the, 1204–14; sketches in England and Germany on the brink of, 1164–1192, 1382–1410
War, Ireland's Part in the, 974–990
War Poetry of Women, The, 434–452
War, Sacrifices necessary to win the, 1–17
War, The, How it affects American Interests, 811–818
War, The Liquor Traffic in, 332–347
War Workers, How to Find Two Million, 758–772
Wedmore (Sir Frederick), Our New French Paintings, 665–670
Weigall (Arthur E. P.), German Menace to Antiquities, 1268–76
Wheat cultivation in France, 1028–1042
Wilberforce (Archdeacon Basil), his friendships and his work, 1110–1124
Will Germany follow Russia's Example? 1083–97
Wilson (H.W.), New Light on Germany's Treachery, 1204–14
Wilson (President), Sea Power, the Armed Neutralities and, 819–845
Wilson's (President) Dream—and his Dilemma, 18–30
Wilson's (President) dream of a League for Peace, 799–810
Wisest of the Greeks, 1047–67
Women at Home and beyond the Seas, 640–650
Women, The War Poetry of, 434–452
Worsfold (W. Basil), An Imperial Trade Policy, 494–509
Wyatt (Harold F.), 'If a man die, shall he live again?' 126–140, 609–625

ZEMSTVOS and Town Councils in Russia, Unions of, 773–784

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE, BALLANTYNE & CO. LTD.
LONDON, COLCHESTER AND ETON, ENGLAND